

ELECTION SECURITY

A Talk by David Maeda, State Director of Elections

Monday, April 13

7:00-8:30 PM

David Maeda, Director of Elections, Office of Minnesota Secretary of State will address election security on a state and national level. What is the nature of threats to election security in Minnesota? How is election security protected in Minnesota? What are the mechanisms in place to address cybersecurity protections? Social media misinformation? What are the cooperative efforts among states to work on election security? Program presented in partnership with American Association of University Women (AAUW) St. Croix Valley.
